

YEAR IN PRISON FOR PARTY BOSS IN ATLANTIC CITY

Louis Kuehnle, Who Has Long Held Sway, Sentenced Today by Justice Kalisch.

MAYS LANDING, N. J., Jan. 24.—Louis Kuehnle, Republican leader of Atlantic City, who was recently convicted of unlawfully participating in the awarding of a contract to a company in which he was interested while he was a member of the Atlantic City Water Commission, was today sentenced to one year imprisonment at hard labor and to pay a fine of $1,000. He was released on bail pending an appeal. The sentence was pronounced by Supreme Court Justice Kalisch.

Nothing more sensational has occurred in Atlantic City in many years. Because of the personality of "Commodore" Kuehnle, as he is familiarly known, every citizen has taken an interest one way or another in his case. Clergymen and citizens of all degrees, urged by Kuehnle's political followers, have been active in circulating petitions urging clemency, and as a result of these efforts it was hoped that he would be let off with a fine.

Kuehnle is reputed to be a millionaire. He has for years held undisputed sway as the Republican "boss" of Atlantic City and county. He is the president of one of the largest banks in the city and a director and heavy stockholder in several others.

The trial was conducted by Supreme Court Justice Kalisch, who had been sent here from Newark by Gov. Woodrow Wilson especially for that purpose. The prosecutor was Attorney-General Wilson, who was also sent here by Gov. Wilson to assist the local prosecutor.

Kuehnle was indicted by a grand jury drawn by two special jurors appointed by Justice Kalisch, who set aside the authority of Sheriff Knuch Johnson, a Kuehnle appointee.

Thomas McDevitt and George Anole, convicted of violating election laws in Atlantic City, were sentenced to six months and three months in jail respectively and to pay the costs of prosecution.

Three freeholders of Atlantic County, John Answorth, Harry May and Frank Ederlin, who were convicted of accepting money for granting road contracts, were sentenced to one year each in the penitentiary, but the Justice eliminated the hard labor provision in the sentences.

An attorney who represented all of the defendants told the Court he had filed an appeal with the Court of Errors at Trenton, the highest court in New Jersey, and asked that the men be admitted to bail, which was granted.

FILIPINOS AGAINST TAFT.

Republican Delegates Instructed to Oppose Indorsement.

MANILA, Jan. 24.—The first Provincial Convention in the Philippines has instructed the Republican delegates of the Pangasinan Province to vote against the indorsement of President Taft at the Territorial Convention. The delegates are otherwise without instructions. The Democrats are fighting bitterly on the question of the indorsement of the Philippine Administration.

ENTRANCE TUNNELLED TO MERCANTILE VAULTS.

But Officials Will Not Have Them
Opened for a Week, Fearing Spontaneous Combustion.

It was announced today by officials in charge of the Equitable building, that entrances have been tunnelled to the Mercantile State Deposit vaults on the Broadway and Cedar street side of the building.

The security vaults in the sub-cellar have been cleared and may be entered at any time. The debris which blocked the vault on the Broadway side has been removed. In the rear of this vault, the steel door with its time lock may be plainly seen from the Cedar street side. The timbers of the flooring have been torn up by the workmen in a futile effort to find the body of Frank J. Neider, who was thought to have been killed at this spot, and this door cannot yet be reached, except by a ladder from the sub-cellar floor.

John B. Russell, Vice-President of the Mercantile Company, said the vaults would not be entered until it was known the interior had cooled thoroughly so that there would be no danger from spontaneous combustion. Men who have been working about the vaults since the fire say it will not be safe to open them for at least another week.

TWO KILLED ON OCEAN LINER.

Members of Crew Victims When Steam Pipe Bursts.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The main steam pipe of the British steamer Skipton Castle burst and killed two of her crew on the voyage from Glasgow, from where she sailed on Jan. 6 for Antwerp. She was spoken on Jan. 20 and reported that she was proceeding to Fayal, in the Azores, after she had undergone temporary repairs.

FIFTY CENTS DID WHAT ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS COULDN'T

Brooklyn Man Discovers He Could Have Saved $99.50
on Injured Leg

Imagine spending One Hundred Dollars for preparations to heal a wound on the leg, and then finding that a fifty-cent jar of Resinol did the trick! That is just what C. M. Waggoner, of Brooklyn, N. Y., did. He tells briefly his experience in the following letter:

"A few years ago I seriously injured my leg, and tried everything I saw advertised. Finally, I was advised to try Resinol Ointment, and in a very short time the wound was completely healed. One small jar of Resinol Ointment did what one hundred dollars' worth of other remedies had failed to do.

"C. M. WAGGONER,
"Brooklyn, N. Y."

Resinol Ointment instantly relieved eczema, scalds and burns, tetter, milk crust, ringworm, barber's itch, all eruptions and irritations of the skin; pimples, itching, blackheads, boils, chilblains, chaps, etc. Try a fifty-cent jar of Resinol Ointment, and be gotten from your druggist, and you will be more than satisfied with the expenditure. Free sample can be had by writing to Department 85, Resinol Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

LAD ACCUSED OF CRIMES.

Sent From Italy, Joseph Lombardi
Is Held for Burglary Here.

Shipped out of Italy by his parents for a crime, Joseph Lombardi, fifteen years old, came to Brooklyn three months ago to live with his uncle, John Caluso, at No. 23 Third street. The first night he was at his uncle's house Lombardi stole a gold watch, $10 in cash and a gold ring and disappeared. The uncle found the man to whom the watch and ring had been sold. Then he learned the boy was making his home in a stable at Third avenue and Carroll street.

About the time of this discovery the saloon of Frank Sansone, at No. 26 Third avenue was entered and $50 stolen. Detectives picked up young Lombardi on a charge of burglary and found in his possession a revolver taken from Sansone's place. Then they learned how the uncle had been robbed.
